Book Buzz

This month the students enjoyed reading the 'I can read' series for level 3. The book they particularly enjoyed was 'Sam the minuteman' by Nathaniel Benchly.

In this exciting 'I Can Read' Book, Nathaniel Benchly recreates what it must have been like for a young boy to fight in the Battle of Lexington. Arnold Lobel's vivid pictures give a poignant reality to the famous battle that marked the beginning of the American Revolution.

'Food for the soul', it is called. The students created an enchantment by its soothing rhythm and let music penetrate deep within.

Music, along with all of its facets - physical, emotional, mental, social, aesthetic, and spiritual; helps students to improve their physical and mental health.

Beyond Classroom

Students enthusiastically participated in 'World Environment Day' activity in school on 5th June. They made beautiful greeting cards for family and friends using bio degradable material. Drawing colourful pictures related to nature and environment, they acknowledged the need to take care of our planet. It was an amazing experience for the little ones and it will positively sensitize them about their role in saving the earth.

Classroom Scoop

Morning Assembly

A fresh start is what is required to uphold one's day! With prayer and positivity, the school begins its mornings as important events around the world are acknowledged. The school choir uplifts the mood by creating rhythmic magic. Various values are inculcated, by conducting brief skits. National fervor is once again rejuvenated before the students disperse, ready to learn!!

Word Wall

.To see is to understand. A special wall embellished with vocabulary enriching words is put up in each classroom. The children learn and remember the important words in each subject.

Parent Support

A child's developmental growth requires the guidance of the teachers at school and constant monitoring of the parents at home. It is of utmost importance for both to work at a simultaneous level. The children need your support for home assignments. We are therefore looking forward to your unwavering cooperation.
